About Turley

Turley is a full service national planning and development consultancy.

We bring deep thinking, smart strategy and expert delivery.

Our core services are Planning, Design, Economics, Heritage, Strategic Communications and Sustainability. These are supplemented by specialist advice on Landscape and Visual Impact Assessment (LVIA), Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA), Development Viability and Expert Witness.

We operate in all jurisdictions in the UK and are located in major cities and growth areas.

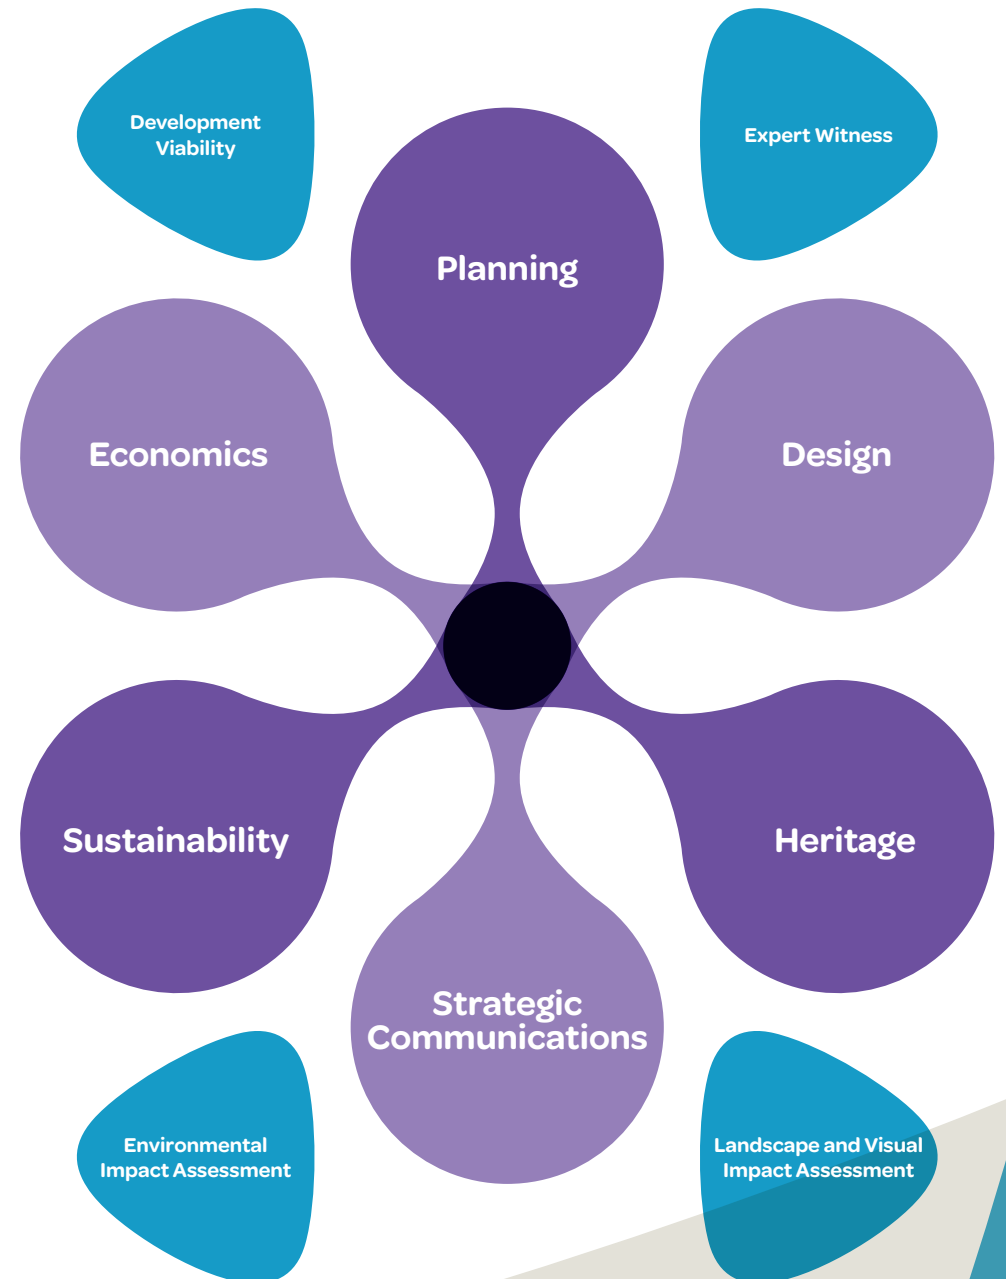

Our teams are experts in their fields; they shape better places and achieve success for our clients.

Services

Many clients take advantage of our full service offer but all are available independently, working collaboratively with other consultant teams.

All our services are tailored to clients' needs and the objectives of the project.

Introduction

Our specialists can provide expert witness support to clients who are involved in planning, property and related disputes and litigation.

Combining technical knowledge across a broad range of development types with the unrivalled experience of our senior professional team, we prepare and present expert evidence in a wide variety of Inquiries, hearings and other tribunals. We deploy people with the necessary experience and gravitas to deliver a successful outcome.

Why Turley?

Expert Witnesses at Turley are, like the company, expert; independent; and commercially-minded. We have coverage across the UK. If you require an expert witness in any local area in any discipline or sector, we will be able to provide one to suit the needs of the case.

Our service

Written advice and opinion

We write reports setting out professional judgment and opinion based on the qualifications, expertise and experience of the author (as opposed to the company). We provide due diligence, second opinion, dispute resolution and risk assessment advice.

Expert reports and evidence

We prepare expert reports for consideration in the formal setting of an Inquiry, court or tribunal. In many cases, we also appear as expert witnesses and undergo cross-examination on the reports' contents.

The situations in which we can make such a contribution include:

- Professional negligence claims
- Real estate litigation
- Commercial contract disputes
- Judicial review
- Rent reviews
- Due diligence
- Public inquiries
- Planning or other regulatory enforcement proceedings
- Compensation and restrictive covenant cases

We prepare proofs of evidence and appear at Public Local Inquiries in relation to a wide range of formal procedures including:

- Planning appeals and Secretary of State call-in
- Listed building appeals and Secretary of State call-in
- Compulsory Purchase Orders
- Highway Stopping Up and Footpath Orders
- Harbour Revision Orders
- Transport & Works Act Orders
- Planning Act 2008 development consent order examinations
- Inquiries held under the Electricity Act

David Murray-Cox

Associate Director
Expert Witness

David has a wide range of experience dealing with planning applications and Development Plan representations for residential and commercial schemes and strategic land promotion.

David has a track record of leading multi-disciplinary teams in promoting developments including strategic land, residential developments, retirement and care communities and significant commercial projects.

He has had significant involvement in the preparation of planning applications and the promotion of sites through the Neighbourhood Plan and Local Plan processes.

David has appeared at both Local Plan Examinations and Section 78 appeal Public Inquiries. He takes a particular interest in research and evidence based approaches to justifying the location of new development.

S78 Appeals

Various appearances as an expert planning witness at s78 Public Inquiries across the south east:

Southbourne, Chichester

Appearing as expert planning witness at the Inquiry, presented evidence in relation to the development of a retirement community, including a care home, assisted living units and age-restricted dwellings.

Westergate, Arun

Expert planning witness at an Inquiry in relation to a proposed development of up to 79 dwellings addressing accessibility and the weight to planning policies. Secured the LPA's agreement that it was unable to demonstrate a 5 year supply of housing before the Inquiry opened. Following the successful appeal decision, worked alongside Thomas Hill QC in resisting a challenge to the permission by the local Village Action Group (and a local resident) on the alleged ground that the Inspector had failed to have regard to an emerging Neighbourhood Plan.
